Statement of the Government of Georgia

WTO negotiations: Georgian government agrees to Swiss proposal

October 27, 2011

Georgia agreed today in Geneva to the final Swiss compromise proposal between the governments of the Russian Federation and Georgia in order to allow the entrance of the Russian Federation into the World Trade Organization.

From now on, from Georgian perspective, the Russian Federation can become a member of the WTO provided that it also agrees to the proposal.

Further technical issues have to be agreed, but all substantial matters are covered by the agreement.

The Georgian government has always understood the importance of such a step for its friends and partners and has adopted from the very beginning of the talks an open attitude, sticking to the Status neutral approach proposed by the Swiss mediation, fully aware that these talks were not the appropriate forum to reverse the ongoing illegal occupation of 20% of the Georgian territory by the Russian military.

The final Swiss proposal guarantees the international supervision of all trade and cargos.

The Georgian government thanks the Swiss mediation.

Sergi Kapanadze, Deputy minister of Foreign Affairs, is available for interviews.
